

It is very important to keep Wisconsin's no-call law strong. Weakening of the law is not acceptable. As a consumer, I want to preserve my right to not be called by telemarketers and to not have them waste my time (and theirs). Wisconsin's no-call law has improved the quality of my life.

The no-call law has the full support of the vast majority of residents and should be understood as the will of the public.

Margaret Hannah